

POLICY FOR SUSTAINABLE TOURISM

From its tours throughout the length and breadth of the Colombian territory, the agency DE UNA Colombia Tours, aims to encourage the respect for the preservation and protection of the natural resources and communities within its customers, as well as its staff and local people by offering tourist plans which provide unique experiences that go beyond the exploration of the exuberant beauty of the Colombian landscapes.

Travelling with DE UNA Colombia Tours, customers can build tailored packages designed for individual expectations and applying the experience and knowledge of the agency's staff, with the purpose of satisfying the preferences and needs of each group regarding tourist and security issues. Thus, tourists will be able to make trips that range from extreme adventure, to a quiet and pleasant break in total comfort.

From their profound care and admiration for the cultural and natural wealth of Colombia, the agency founders have focused on practicing sustainable tourism and displaying the community's customs and native traditions, emphasizing the importance and value of the cultural heritage and environment preservation.

DE UNA Colombia Tours contributes to Corporate Social Responsibility with fair economic reward towards all third party services, always looking to employ local people and supporting social projects offering some communities the tools to improve their quality of life in the long and medium term.
